Following a brief period of transition, Torrey Foster, who has led the region since 2013, will assume full-time market responsibilities as a Partner in both the Consumer and CEO & Board practices.

"In addition to his deep experience advising global clients in C-suite and board-level executive searches, Ron brings a proven strategic and operational skillset to the role of leader of our team across the Americas," said Tracy Wolstencroft, Heidrick & Struggles President and Chief Executive Officer. "Importantly, Ron shares our firm's values and vision for growth."

Lumbra joins Heidrick & Struggles from a global executive search firm where he served as Managing Director and Co-Leader, Americas CEO and Board Services. Previously, Lumbra co-led the firm's Americas operations. His early career included increasingly responsible leadership roles at HP, Trammel Crow and AES. These experiences helped prepare him for executive positions at Amoco, where he served as Vice President, Business Development and then Regional Vice President for Amoco Power Resources, Latin America.
