August 4, 2016

CHICAGO, Aug. 4, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Heidrick & Struggles (Nasdaq: HSII), a premier provider of executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping worldwide, announced today that Lyle Logan, Board Director and member of the Heidrick & Struggles' Nominating and Governance Committee, has been named by Savoy Magazine to its Power 300: 2016 Most Influential Black Corporate Directors.

HEIDRICK & STRUGGLES

The Power 300 list recognizes African-American executives and influencers contributing leadership to corporate boards. The magazine's upcoming issue will feature Logan and executives across industries ranging from financial services to media and entertainment.

"Lyle's dedication to corporate governance and his commitment to our organization make him truly deserving of the honor of being named to the Power 300 list," said Tracy R. Wolstencroft, Heidrick & Struggles' President and Chief Executive Officer.

Logan was named to the Heidrick & Struggles Board of Directors in December 2015. He serves as Executive Vice President and Managing Director of the Global Financial Institutions Group for the Northern Trust Company and also serves on the boards of Chicago's Children's Memorial Hospital, The Field Foundation and DeVry Education Group, Inc.
