Heidrick & Struggles Names Bo Herbst to Lead Industrial Practice Globally

April 27, 2017

CHICAGO, April 27, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Heidrick & Struggles (Nasdaq: HSII), a premier provider of executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping services worldwide, has appointed Bo Herbst to lead its Industrial Practice worldwide as Global Practice Managing Partner.

HEIDRICK & STRUGGLES

"In this expanded role, Bo will lead Heidrick's global Industrial Practice in further enhancing our impact with clients, leveraging a global network of experienced consultants and complementary leadership services," said Krishnan Rajagopalan, Acting President and CEO, Heidrick & Struggles.

Herbst joined Heidrick & Struggles in 2000, and has led senior executive and board director searches within industrial and manufacturing sectors. He has helped clients across a broad spectrum of industries build effective leadership teams. Herbst was named Regional Practice Managing Partner for the firm's Industrial Practice in the Americas in 2013, a role that he will continue to hold while leading the practice globally.

"This is an exciting time for both the industrial sector and for our firm. Industrial manufacturing is undergoing a transformation with the integration of new technologies such as the Internet of Things, automation, artificial intelligence and robotics," Herbst said. "Heidrick & Struggles is well positioned to assist industrial clients at this crucial time with comprehensive solutions—including executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping. We are helping our clients build world-class leadership teams and accelerate performance throughout their organizations."

Herbst holds an international MBA from Thunderbird, the American Graduate School of International Management, and a bachelor of arts from Trinity University.
