Heidrick & Struggles Names Andrew LeSueur Head of Leadership Consulting in the Americas

June 8, 2017

CHICAGO, June 8, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Heidrick & Struggles (Nasdaq: HSII), a premier provider of executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping services worldwide, has appointed Andrew LeSueur Head of Leadership Consulting in the Americas.

"Andrew's success in accelerating the performance of our clients will bring immense value to our Leadership Consulting business as we look to further strengthen the firm's complementary services," said Colin Price, Executive Vice President and Managing Partner of the Leadership Consulting Practice. "Andrew has consistently demonstrated the power of our firm by working across business lines to bring clients the most value possible, and I know he will bring this same dedication and collaborative approach to the Leadership Consulting Practice."

LeSueur will continue to support his Executive Search clients and the Industrial and Supply Chain practices as he transitions into his new role.

"The Americas is our largest market, and I look forward to the opportunity to make an even broader impact for the firm and our clients during a time when the need for visionary leadership, differentiating talent and thriving culture has never been greater," said LeSueur.

LeSueur joined Heidrick & Struggles in 2015 from McKinsey where he was partner in the Operations practice, working with clients to help architect, implement and sustain performance transformations.
