September 12, 2017

Bonnie Gwin and Ted Dysart recognized among most influential leaders in boardrooms and corporate governance

CHICAGO, Sept. 12, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Heidrick & Struggles, a premier provider of executive search, leadership consulting and culture shaping worldwide, announced today that Vice Chairman and Co-Managing Partner of the Global CEO & Board Practice Bonnie Gwin and Vice Chairman Ted Dysart have been named again to the National Association of Corporate Directors \(NACD\) Directorship 100. The annual list recognizes the leading corporate directors, corporate governance executives, policymakers, and influencers who significantly impact boardroom practices and performance.

"Bonnie and Ted have a proven track record of advising many of the world's foremost leaders on corporate governance and board leadership," said Krishnan Rajagopalan, President and Chief Executive Officer at Heidrick & Struggles. "Being named to the NACD Directorship 100 year-after-year demonstrates their consistent commitment to upholding the highest level of integrity and excellence in advancing board performance."

This is the tenth time Dysart has been named to the NACD Directorship 100 and Gwin has been named every year since 2010. They will be recognized at the 11th annual NACD Directorship 100 Gala November 29 in New York City.

Nominees for the list are evaluated based on integrity, mature confidence, informed judgement and high performance standards. An independent selection committee reviews each nominee's history of advancing board performance and leading corporate governance practices in accordance with established NACD principles.
