

HEIDRICK & STRUGGLES

Will Moynahan appointed UK Managing Partner at Heidrick & Struggles

June 20, 2013

20 June 2013, London: Heidrick & Struggles International, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSII), the premier professional services firm focused on serving the leadership needs of top organizations globally, today announced that Will Moynahan has been appointed Managing Partner to lead the firm's London office.

In his search and leadership advisory capacity, Will is a member of both the global CEO & Board of Directors and Private Equity practices. Commenting on his new role, Will said, "At our recent European Consultants' meeting, London reaffirmed its position as a key focus for talent by picking up many accolades including those for Principal and Associate Principal of the Year as well as Rookie of the Year.

"We are privileged to work in a city that consistently attracts new international businesses and inspires entrepreneurs reinvigorating our status as a destination for global strategy and finance. That quality of opportunity is reflected in the team here which has been recognized internally for their contribution to the firm. Being asked to lead the London Office at this time is a real honour and a challenge as we continue to develop our leadership advisory business at the Board level."

Before joining Heidrick & Struggles, Will was co-head of European Private Equity and a consultant within an international executive search boutique. Previously, he worked at a prestigious UK-based executive search firm as an associate, before joining a global executive search firm in London as senior associate in their consumer, retail and entertainment practice.
